Narrative: received a threatening phone call last night

A phone call was placed to Comp's workplace last night asking for her. She was not at work at the time. She called the number back and the person who answered told her not to call the number again. She called the number again and was told again not to call. She is afraid because she has no idea ho called her last night and is afraid the caller will attempt to contact her again. She was referred to CPD if any more incidents occur at her workplace.
